THE MARSHALLS

In Memoriam

GERTRUDE PEARL MARSHALL

1894-1941

Descendants of John Marshall of Billerica, Mass., chiefly in the line of Joseph Marshall of Weare, N. H., compiled by Grace Merle Marshall, from records of Gertrude Pearl Marshall

137 Chestnut St., Rutherford, New Jersey

November, 1943

in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal
this twenty fifth day of November Anno Domini 1784 Signed sealed and delivered in presence of Benjamin Marshall

Jonathan Marshall

Joseph Marshall

This is a photostatic copy of the signatures of Joseph Marshall and two of his sons, taken from a deed given by him to Joseph, Jr.
who was a twin of Benjamin.

I find that Daniel Shedd's family had twins and they seem to be most common in the descendants of Thomas and Ruth Marshall. This leads me to wonder if Thomas married a Farley. We know that his wife's poster was worked R. F. The Lexington, Mass. paper recently contained pictures of Augustus Ireland and Richard Marshall, twins who are descendants of John of America. Daniel Shedd was the first generation in this country. (See Ancestry Charts.) Shedd also married Farleys and there were twins in the Farley family.

The system of numbering used in this manuscript is the one approved by genealogists, the first number being the first ancestor and each number thereafter is the number of the child in his own family. I have used capital letters for sons of Joseph and carried the number system as far as the grandchildren. Grand grandchildren are numbered in the paragraph of parent. Unnumbered persons are later generations, but can easily be given a number.

There are several placed records that I should like to receive information about. Who was Warren Marshall b. abt. 1825 and d. in Claremont, N. H. in the 80's? He lived with my grandfather in Unity as a young man. I cannot place Benjamin F. of Charlestown, N. H., whose daughter, Emma E. a Veary and lived in the Marshall Neighborhood in Unity.

Marshall Pond, Unity, New Hampshire

Joseph Marshall settled in Weare, N. H. Descendants of his son, Benjamin still live there. Benjamin's and Jonathan's line lived in that vicinity, but Jonathan lived in Bradford, N. H. for a time. His family moved to Nashua, N. H. and some went to Kansas. Three of Benjamin's sons went to Unity, N. H. (Phillip, Benjamin and John) and Jonathan's son, Jonathan, settled in Unity. Asa's family settled in Unity and descendants now live in Claremont, N. H. Rufus settled in Bradford, N. H. but afterwards moved to Unity. Ebenezer and Joseph, Jr. as well as Thomas settled in Bradford. John lived in Bradford, Antrim and Canaan. Walker lived in Bradford and Tunbridge, Vt., but his descendants settled in Sutton, N. H. Silas settled in Hillsboro, N. H. and Moses in Dunbarton, N. H. and Moses in Dunbarton, N. H.

The picture shown above was the center of the Marshall Neighborhood, so-called because one large school district in olden times was made up entirely of Marshalls. Today there are none left. The pond is fed by springs and is the size of a small field. I imagine it was the favorite fishing ground of most of the Marshalls as Bradford is only a short distance away.

GLEANINGS AND MUSINGS

For some years, before her death my twin sister, Gertrude Pearl Marshall collected much information about the Marshall family. In 1940, we mimeographed a pamphlet giving as far as could be ascertained the descendants of our great grandparents, Rufus Marshall and Susanna George. We also compiled ancestry charts of our great grandparents. Since I find so much material about the brothers and sisters of Rufus Marshall and their descendants, I have prepared a manuscript on the descendants of Joseph Marshall, my great great grandfather and a Revolutionary soldier. I still find more material, chiefly about the earlier generations.

This last week I received a note thanking me for information I had furnished. Hence I am gathering together some source material as time will not permit me to do the necessary research.

There is a great deal of curiosity as to the father of John Marshall of Billerica, Mass. I am still of the opinion that he may have been the son of William who came in 1635. The reasons for this belief are given in the notes attached to ancestry charts mentioned above. In 1941, I called on some of his descendants living in Tewksbury, Mass. (which is the next town to Billerica) and they said the tradition was that the family came from Plum Island. William mentioned above owned shares of Plum Island. I hope some day to have time to look up the Ipswich, Mass. records. Some of these are given in Hammett papers. I also believe the records of Charlestown, Mass. (not yet published) may throw some light on the matter. John Marshall seems to have gone to Charlestown temporarily in 1675. The history of Charlestown gives several Marshalls among them a William and a Henry. Tradition says our family came from Kent, England. In Kent County, England, I found a record of the settlement of an estate of Henry which says he was late of New England. Researchers tell us that there were few Marshalls in Kent County.

John Marshall of Billerica had nine children, but only two lived to adulthood, a son, John and a daughter, Joanna who married Peter Cornsall. I find considerable material about John's descendants, but can give only names of books where this material may be found.

1-4-2 John Marshall is perhaps the John Marshall mentioned on page 173, History of Hudson, N.H., by Kimball Webster. Sons Daniel and John are mentioned and I find from some church records of Hudson, N. H. that Abigail Parker Marshall is the name given to one of their descendants. Mr. Arthur Wendell Marshall now living in Tynsboro, Mass. Says the farm described by Webster was his grandfather's farm. I have copies of all the Marshall records of New Hampshire up to 1900 and some since. Believe all marked Nottingham West are of this family and those of East are of the Edmund Marshall family. Mr. A. R. Marshall is able to trace back to Richard, unless he or his father had the name of Daniel. I find one family traced from this John through Daniel in Cutler's N. H. Families, but find the same information in Marsh Genealogy traced from Richard. Daniel Richardson Marshall is a name occurring several times in this family. There is also another clue that this may be true. Seven or eight of the sixteen children of my great great grandfather lived at one time in Bradford N. H. There was another Marshall family there which tradition says is related to our family. Miss Eleanor Marshall of that family can trace back to this same Richard of Mr. A. R. Marshall. Miss Marshall's own father was in the glass business in Boston and Mr. A. R. Marshall remembers cousins of his grandfather who were in the glass business coming at his home. 1676485

1-4-3 Daniel Marshall There is a probate record of 1722 which may be this Daniel as he seems to be the only one in Billerica at the time. I have not checked it. See Middlesex County #14593, East Cambridge, Mass. Court House.

1-4-5 Thomas Marshall I have considerable information about this family as he was our great great great grandfather, Thomas, Jr. m. Hannah Frost and lives in Charlestown--11 children. Samuel m. Esther Frost, 8 children. The family remained in the region although some went to Freetown, Mass. His son, Abel, went to Lyme N. H. but came back and d. in Tewksbury. The Thomas Marshall home is now occupied by his descendants who run a greenhouse in Tewksbury, Mass. Some of the Lyne family moved farther north to northern New Hampshire. I have prepared a manuscript about Joseph. There is also considerable information about this family in History of Sears, N. H. John d. in young manhood, leaving only one son. Jonas became a doctor and settled in Fitchburg, Mass. and many of his descendants now reside there. Joel M. and Moers had 12 children who seemed to have remained in vicinity of Billerica, Mass. Elias M. Eunice Bailey, 9 children. He lived in Westminster, and Groton, Mass. and Jeffrey and Hollis N. H. William lived in Jeffrey, N. H. and his descendants there. Daniel seems to have remained in Massachusetts.

1-4-6 Samuel Marshall Know nothing about this family. Have seen recently a request for information about Samuel of Lunenburg, Mass. This may be the son.

1-4-7 William Marshall Mrs. Augusta Tolson of Boston tells that this the William who went from Dedham or Walpole, Mass. to Annapolis County, Nova Scotia. She says William M. Elizabeth Mason. I find such a marriage in Ipswich, Mass. He also says that sons went to Pennsylvania, then to Virginia and finally to Iowa. I believe there is a genealogy of this family which is summarized in Marshall Family Record by Jesse Montgomery Beaver. The Cape Genealogy and Colner's History to Annapolis County give an account of the other sons. There has been a story in my own family that some of the family went to Nova Scotia and came to Virginia so this may be true.

1-4-8 Isaac Marshall This line has been traced in Marshall Family Record by Montgomery and summarized in Beaver.

As mentioned above I have the Vital Records of New Hampshire for the Marshalls to 1900 and some since. I also have copies of records of Mars christenings to 1849 for Billerica and the nearby towns. Of course, there are some other records which have been gathered in various places and from individuals. Some day I may have time to compile a more complete record and would be pleased to hear from any of the Marshall family.

Sincerely yours,

Grace Merle Marshall
